Mission Statement

"To develop nurture and young people, through quality education based on biblical truths,
who will impact the world for Christ."

"To develop young people" is our way of saying we desire for the young people at PACA, our students, to mature and grow into responsible adults who can interact effectively in their world. PACA is committed to recruiting qualified and gifted Christian teachers who care deeply about developing the "whole" child. Our teachers want to see their students established and rooted in all areas of life: academic, spiritual, emotional, social, and physical.

"Quality education" is the entire program offered at PACA. We hold ourselves financially, academically, and morally accountable to three accreditation organizations: the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI), and the Brazilian Ministry of Education and Culture (MEC). Our students test scores on college entrance exams have been high in both the U.S. and Brazil. PACA graduates are being accepted into prominent universities throughout the U.S. and Brazil.

"Based on biblical truth" is our entire foundation. More than ever, PACA teachers are integrating biblical truths into the curriculum, strengthening the character formation of each student! A Christian worldview is paramount for our teachers and students. Integrity, honesty, diligence, obedience, generosity, and loving your neighbor are just as important to teach as math, literature, science, social studies and critical thinking. We believe modeling these values to our students is as important as teaching them. PACA's professionally qualified teachers share a passion for academic, spiritual, and character formation. Our teachers and faculty serve as models for professionalism and moral conduct. They are the living curriculum of our school.

This leads us to the last phrase "who will impact their world for Christ." In order to impact your world, you must understand it, know how to operate in it, and be equipped to avoid its downfalls. PACA teaches students to give their best in order to transform global society. Our aim is to develop life long learners in a diverse and global community, who understand, respect, and benefit from a multicultural experience, recognizing and respecting the qualities and rights of all people. We see a need to prepare global citizens to make a difference in the world.

Integrating our Christian faith prepares their character. Graduating with two diplomas prepares their critical thinking skills. The synergy of integrating biblical truth and academic preparation is to benefit society – global society. We desire for our teachers and students to be a reflection of Christ's attitude and teachings as we interact effectively in this world.
